

Why Empathy?

Empathy – is the ability of youth to be sensitive to the feelings and experiences of others and to act in a caring way towards others. This social skill is considered an important aspect of the ability of youth to successfully manage social relationships with peers. In general, programs have a positive effect on youth when they enhance the ability of youth to respond empathetically towards others